Clause 8

Sri. D. Gnanasigamoni: Sir, I move the following amendment.

" In Clause 8, omit the words beginning with 'and shall have.'

The amended clause will read as follows:

" On the date on which the scheme is published in the Gazette under sub-section 4 of section 7, it shall come into force."

It is absurd to say that as soon as the scheme is published, it will have the effect as it were enacted in this Act. So far as this scheme is concerned it is not a scheme enacted by this House. In order that it may form part of the Act, this legislature must have exercised its mind in the framing of the scheme. Otherwise there is no meaning in saying that the scheme will have effect as if were enacted in this Act. I cannot understand why that provision is so made and whether such a provision is needed. Even if the scheme is properly approved and passess through all the stages and comes into force, there is no need to consider this as having been enacted as a part of this Act. Even otherwise, it will have its validity. So I move this amendment.
